NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(In thousands, except per share data)

(Unaudited)

NOTE 1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements include those of Adobe and its subsidiaries, after elimination of all intercompany accounts and transactions. Adobe has prepared the accompanying interim condensed consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, consistent in all material respects with those applied in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended November 28, 2003. The interim financial information is unaudited but reflects all adjustments which are, in the opinion of management, necessary to provide fair condensed consolidated balance sheets, condensed consolidated statements of income and cash flows for the interim periods presented. Such adjustments are normal and recurring except as otherwise noted. You should read these interim condensed consolidated financial statements in conjunction with the audited financial statements in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended November 28, 2003.

Revenue Recognition

Our revenue is derived from the licensing of application and server-based software products, professional services, and maintenance and support. We recognize revenue when persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, we have delivered the product or performed the service, the fee is fixed or determinable and collection is probable.

Product revenue

We recognize our product revenue upon shipment, provided collection is determined to be probable and no significant obligations remain on our part. Our desktop application products revenue from distributors is subject to agreements allowing limited rights of return, rebates, and price protection. Accordingly we reduce revenue recognized for estimated future returns, price protection and rebates at the time the related revenue is recorded. The estimates for returns are adjusted periodically based upon historical rates of returns, inventory levels in the distribution channel and other related factors.

We provide free technical phone support to customers for our shrink-wrapped application products under warranty. We record the estimated cost of free technical phone support upon shipment of software.

We record OEM licensing revenue, primarily royalties, when OEM partners ship products incorporating Adobe software, provided collection of such revenue is deemed probable.

Our product-related deferred revenue includes customer advances under OEM license agreements and maintenance upgrade revenue. Our maintenance upgrade revenue for our desktop application products is included in our product revenue line item as the maintenance primarily entitle customers to receive product upgrades. In cases where we provide a specified free upgrade to an existing product, we defer the fair value for the specified upgrade right until the future obligation is fulfilled or when the right to the specified free upgrade expires.

Services and support revenue

Our services and support revenue is composed of professional services (such as consulting services and training) and maintenance and support, primarily related to the licensing of our Intelligent Documents server solution products. Our support revenue also includes technical support and developer support to partners and developer organizations related to our desktop products.

Our professional services revenue is recognized using the percentage of completion method and is measured monthly based on input measures, such as on hours incurred to date compared to total estimated hours to complete, with consideration given to output measures, such as contract milestones when applicable. Our maintenance and support offerings, which entitle customers to receive product upgrades and enhancements or technical support, depending on the offering, are recognized ratably over the term of the arrangement.

Multiple element arrangements

We enter into revenue arrangements in which a customer may purchase a combination of software, upgrades, maintenance and support, and professional services (multiple-element arrangements). When vendor-specific objective evidence ("VSOE") of fair value exists for all elements, we allocate revenue to each element based on the relative fair value of each of the elements. VSOE of fair value is established by the price charged when that element is sold separately. For maintenance and support, VSOE of fair value is established by renewal rates. For arrangements where VSOE exists only for the undelivered elements, we defer the full fair value of the undelivered elements and recognize the difference between the total arrangement fee and the amount deferred for the undelivered items as revenue, assuming all other criteria for revenue recognition have been met.

We perform ongoing credit evaluations of our customers' financial condition and in some cases we require various forms of security. We also maintain allowances for estimated losses on receivables.

Stock-Based Incentive Compensation

We account for our stock option plans and our employee stock purchase plan using the intrinsic value method under Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25. The following table sets forth the pro forma amounts of net income and net income per share, for the three and six months ended June 4, 2004 and May 30, 2003, that would have resulted if we accounted for our employee stock plans under the fair value recognition provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation."

As reported	$ 0.44	$ 0.27	$ 0.94	$ 0.50
Pro forma	$ 0.35	$ 0.03	$ 0.71	$ 0.01

For purposes of computing pro forma net income, we estimate the fair value of option grants and employee stock purchase plan purchase rights using the Black-Scholes option pricing model. The Black-Scholes option pricing model was developed for use in estimating the fair value of traded options that have no vesting restriction and are fully transferable, characteristics not present in our option grants and employee stock purchase plan shares. Additionally, option valuation models require the input of highly subjective assumptions, including the expected volatility of the stock price. Because our employee stock options and employee stock purchase plan shares have characteristics significantly different from those of traded options and because changes in the subjective input assumptions can materially affect the fair value estimates, in management's opinion, the existing models do not provide a reliable single measure of the fair value of our stock-based awards.

During the quarter ended June 4, 2004, we adjusted our expected volatility assumptions. We considered implied volatility in market-traded options on our common stock as well as third party volatility quotes. In addition, we considered historical volatility. We will continue to monitor these and other relevant factors used to measure expected volatility for future option grants.

The assumptions used to value the option grants and purchase rights, for the three and six months ended June 4, 2004 and May 30, 2003, are as follows:

	Three Months Ended		Six Months Ended
	2004	2003	2004	2003
Expected life of options (in years)	2.5	3	2.5	3
Expected life of purchase rights (in years)	1.24	1.24	1.24	1.24
Volatility	37%	62%	37 - 40%	62 - 66%
Risk free interest rate—options	2.57 - 3.11%	1.98 - 2.06%	2.18 - 3.11%	1.98 - 2.23%
Risk free interest rate—purchase rights	1.24 - 1.76%	1.36 - 1.74%	1.24 - 1.76%	1.36 - 1.74%
Dividend yield	0.125%	0.125%	0.125%	0.125%

Option and restricted stock grants vest over several years, and new option and restricted stock grants are generally made each year. Because of this, the pro forma amounts shown above may not be representative of the pro forma effect on reported net income in future years.

Income Taxes

We use the asset and liability method of accounting for income taxes. Under the asset and liability method, we recognize deferred tax assets and liabilities for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts and the tax basis of existing assets and liabilities. We record a valuation allowance to reduce deferred tax assets to an amount for which realization is more likely than not. We also account for any income tax contingencies in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 5 ("SFAS 5"), "Accounting for Contingencies."

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In December 2003, the FASB issued Interpretation No. 46R ("FIN 46R"), a revision to FIN 46. FIN 46R clarifies some of the provisions of FIN 46 and exempts certain entities from its requirements. FIN 46R is effective at the end of the first interim period ending after December 15, 2003. We have considered the provisions of FIN 46R and believe it will not be necessary to include in our financial statements any assets, liabilities, or activities of the third-party entities holding our corporate headquarters leases. We have provided certain disclosures related to these leases in other areas of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q (see Note 8 of our Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements). Under the provisions of FIN 46R, we began consolidating our Adobe Ventures partnerships in the first quarter of fiscal 2004. This consolidation did not have a material impact on our consolidated financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

In December 2003, the SEC issued Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 104 ("SAB 104"), "Revenue Recognition", which supercedes Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 101 ("SAB 101"), "Revenue Recognition in Financial Statements." The primary purpose of SAB 104 is to rescind accounting guidance contained in SAB 101 related to multiple element revenue arrangements, which was superceded as a result of the issuance of Emerging Issues Task Force 00-21 ("EITF 00-21"), "Accounting for Revenue Arrangements with Multiple Deliverables." SAB 104 also incorporated certain sections of the SEC's "Revenue Recognition in Financial Statements—Frequently Asked Questions and Answers" document. While the wording of SAB 104 has changed to reflect the issuance of EITF 00-21, the revenue recognition principles of SAB 101 remain largely unchanged by the issuance of SAB 104. The adoption of SAB 104 did not have a material impact on our consolidated financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

NOTE 2. ACQUISITION

On May 3, 2004, we acquired Q-Link Technologies, Inc ("Q-Link"), a privately held company, for $15.9 million in cash. Q-Link provides Java-based workflow technology that will be integrated with our Intelligent Documents platform to enable customers to integrate document process management with core applications. Goodwill has been allocated to our Intelligent Documents segment. Purchased technology is being amortized over its estimated useful life of three years. The consolidated financial statements include the operating results of Q-Link from the date of purchase. Pro forma results of operations have not been presented because the effect of this acquisition was not material. The following table summarizes the purchase price allocation:

Cash and cash equivalents	$ 312
Accounts receivable, net	415
Other current assets	18
Purchased technology	1,380
Goodwill	14,261
Other intangible assets	290

NOTE 3. GOODWILL AND PURCHASED AND OTHER INTANGIBLES

Below is a breakdown of our goodwill, net of amortization, reported by segment as of June 4, 2004:

	Digital Imaging and Video	Creative Professional	Intelligent Documents	Total
	<hr/>	<hr/>	<hr/>	<hr/>
Goodwill, net of amortization	$ 14,112	$ 4,650	$ 91,470	$ 110,232
	<hr/>	<hr/>	<hr/>	<hr/>

In accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets," we review our goodwill periodically for impairment. We completed our annual goodwill impairment test during the second quarter of fiscal 2004 and determined that the carrying amount of goodwill was not impaired.

Purchased and other intangible assets, subject to amortization, were as follows as of June 4, 2004:

	Cost	Accumulated Amortization	Net
Purchased technology	$ 31,612	$ (22,321)	$ 9,291
Localization	11,941	(7,014)	4,927

Other intangibles	716	(427)	289
Total other intangible assets	$ 11,556	$ (5,872)	$ 5,684
Total purchased and other intangible assets	$ 40,065	$ (24,747)	$ 15,318

Amortization expense related to purchased and other intangible assets was $4.5 million and $8.9 million for the three and six months ended June 4, 2004. Amortization expense related to purchased and other intangible assets was $3.7 million and $7.3 million for the three and six months ended May 30, 2003. As of June 4, 2004, we expect amortization expense in future periods to be as shown below:

Fiscal year	Purchased Technology	Other Intangible Assets
Remainder of 2004	$ 3,601	$ 4,461
2005	4,453	770
2006	970	114
2007	230	66
2008	37	18
2009	—	18
Thereafter	—	74
Total expected amortization expense	$ 9,291	$ 5,521

NOTE 4. OTHER ASSETS

Other assets consisted of the following as of June 4, 2004 and November 28, 2003:

	2004	2003
Investments	$ 31,983	$ 30,840
Security deposits and other	3,389	3,503
Land deposit	3,359	3,378
	<hr/>	<hr/>
Total other assets	$ 38,731	$ 37,721

We own limited partnership interests in Adobe Ventures which are consolidated in accordance with FIN 46R. The partnerships are controlled by Granite Ventures, an independent venture capital firm and sole general partner of Adobe Ventures. As of June 4, 2004 and November 28, 2003, the estimated fair value of our partnership interests in Adobe Ventures were $32.9 million and $30.6 million, respectively.

We recognize realized gains and losses upon the sale of investments using the specific identification method. During the three months ended June 4, 2004, we recorded investment gains of $0.9 million and during the six months ended June 4, 2004 we recorded investment losses of $0.2 million, which comprise gains and losses from our short-term and long-term investments. The $0.9 million in gains for the three months ended June 4, 2004, consisted of $0.4 million related to our investments in Adobe Ventures and our cost method investments and $0.5 million related to sales of equity securities. During the six months ended June 4, 2004, we had losses of $0.9 million related to our investments in Adobe Ventures and our cost method investments which were partially offset by gains on short-term investments of $0.2 million and gains on sales of equity securities of $0.5 million.

During the three months ended May 30, 2003, investment losses included losses related to our Adobe Ventures and our cost method investments totaling $3.6 million. During the six months ended May 30, 2003, investment losses included write-downs due to other-than-temporary declines in value of $3.9 million related to our short-term investments. Investment losses also included losses related to our Adobe Ventures and our cost method investments totaling $7.2 million. These losses were partially offset by gains from the sale of our marketable equity securities of $0.8 million.

NOTE 5. ACCRUED EXPENSES

Accrued expenses consisted of the following as of June 4, 2004 and November 28, 2003:

	2004	2003
Accrued compensation and benefits	$ 88,945	$ 65,870
Sales and marketing allowances	12,082	14,169
Accrued restructuring	415	1,132
Other	87,410	78,838
	<hr/>	<hr/>
Total accrued expenses	$ 188,852	$ 160,009

NOTE 6. RESTRUCTURING AND OTHER CHARGES

In connection with our acquisition of Accelio in the second quarter of fiscal 2002, we recognized $14.5 million in liabilities associated with a worldwide reduction in force of Accelio employees, transaction costs, costs related to closing redundant facilities and terminating contracts and other exit costs associated with the acquisition. As of June 4, 2004, $0.4 million remained accrued and comprised transaction and facilities costs. Transaction costs primarily relate to the liquidation of Accelio's subsidiaries and are expected to be paid through fiscal 2004. Facility costs relate to leases we assumed upon acquisition of Accelio that terminate at various times through September 2006.

A summary of restructuring activities, related to our acquisition of Accelio, is as follows:

	Balance at November 28, 2003	Cash Payments	Adjustments	Balance at June 4, 2004
Transaction costs	$ 255	$ (83)	$ (19)	$ 153

NOTE 7. STOCKHOLDERS' EQUITY

Stock Repurchase Program I—On-going Dilution Coverage

To facilitate our stock repurchase program, designed to minimize dilution from stock issuance primarily from employee stock plans, we repurchase shares in the open market and from time to time enter into structured repurchase agreements with third parties.

Authorization to repurchase shares to cover on-going dilution is not subject to expiration. However, this repurchase program is limited to covering net dilution from stock issuances and is subject to business conditions and cash flow requirements as determined by our Board of Directors from time to time. During the second quarter of 2004, we repurchased approximately 1.9 million shares in the open market at an average price of $41.26. During the second quarter of 2003 we did not repurchase any shares in the open market. The cost of repurchases in the second quarter of fiscal 2004 was $80.2 million. During the six months ended June 4, 2004 and May 30, 2003, we repurchased, in the open market, approximately 3.4 million at an average price of $40.21 and 1.6 million shares at an average price of $28.47, respectively. As of June 4, 2004, 22.7 million shares remained authorized for repurchase, based on net stock issuances less repurchases under this plan.

On March 29, 2004, we entered into a stock purchase agreement with a large financial institution. Under this agreement, we provided the financial institution with an up-front payment of $50.0 million and the financial institution agreed to deliver to us at certain intervals during the contract term a certain number of our shares based on the volume weighted average price during such intervals less a specified discount. Upon payment, the $50.0 million was classified as treasury stock on our balance sheet. During the second quarter of fiscal 2004, we took delivery of a total of 0.6 million shares for $23.8 million at an average price of $42.12. As of June 4, 2004, the financial institution held $26.2 million for which we received the remaining shares at the expiration of the contract on June 30, 2004.

Stock Repurchase Program II—Additional Authorization above Dilution Coverage

On September 25, 2002, our Board of Directors authorized a program to purchase up to an additional 5.0 million shares of our common stock over a three-year period, subject to certain business and cash flow requirements. We have not made any purchases under this 5.0 million share repurchase program. The authorization for this program will expire in September 2005.

NOTE 8. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Lease Commitments

We lease certain of our facilities and some of our equipment under noncancelable operating lease arrangements that expire at various dates through 2091.

In December 2003, upon completion of construction, we began a five year lease agreement of a new office building for our corporate headquarters in San Jose, California. Under the agreement, we have the option to purchase the building at any time during the lease term for the lease balance, which is approximately $103.0 million. The maximum recourse amount ("residual value guarantee"), under this obligation, is $90.8 million.

In August 1999, we entered into a five-year lease agreement for our other two office buildings that currently serve as our corporate headquarters in San Jose, California. Under the agreement, we have the option to purchase the buildings at any time during the lease term for the lease balance, which is approximately $142.5 million. The residual value guarantee, under this obligation, is $132.6 million. This agreement expires in August 2004 and we are in the process of renewing our lease agreement. We believe the terms and conditions will be similar to the existing lease.

These two leases are both subject to standard covenants including liquidity, leverage and profitability ratios that are reported to the lessor quarterly. As of June 4, 2004, we were in compliance with all covenants. In the case of a default, the lessor may demand we purchase the buildings for an amount equal to the lease balance, or require that we remarket or relinquish the buildings. The leases qualify for operating lease accounting treatment under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 13, "Accounting for Leases," and, as such, the buildings and the related obligations are not included on our consolidated balance sheet. We utilized this type of financing in order to access bank-provided funding at the most favorable rates and to provide the lowest total cost of occupancy for the headquarter buildings. At the end of the lease term, we can purchase the buildings for the lease balance, remarket or relinquish the buildings. If we choose to remarket or are required to do so upon relinquishing the buildings, we are bound to arrange the sale of the buildings to an unrelated party and will be required to pay the lessor any shortfall between the net remarketing proceeds and the lease balance, up to the maximum recourse amount.

Royalties

We have certain royalty commitments associated with the shipment and licensing of certain products. Royalty expense is generally based on a dollar amount per unit shipped or a percentage of the underlying revenue.

Guarantees

The lease agreements for our three office buildings in San Jose, California provide for residual value guarantees. These lease agreements were in place prior to December 31, 2002 and are therefore not required to be recorded on our consolidated balance sheet but are disclosed above under "Lease Commitments". However, we are in the process of renewing one of our lease agreements as disclosed above under "Lease Commitments" and the residual value under the new lease agreement will be required to be recorded on our consolidated balance sheet, under FASB Interpretation No. 45 ("FIN 45"), "Guarantor's Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, Including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others."

In the normal course of business, we provide indemnifications of varying scope to customers against claims of intellectual property infringement made by third parties arising from the use of our products. Historically, costs related to these indemnification provisions have not been significant and we are unable to estimate the maximum potential impact of these indemnification provisions on our future results of operations.

We have commitments to make certain milestone and/or retention payments typically entered into in conjunction with various acquisitions, for which we have made accruals in our consolidated financial statements. In connection with certain acquisitions and purchases of technology assets during fiscal 2003 and 2004, we entered into employee retention agreements totaling $2.7 million and are required to make payments upon satisfaction of certain conditions in the agreements. These costs are being amortized over the retention period to compensation expense. During the second quarter of fiscal 2004, we made payments of $1.1 million. As of June 4, 2004, we have $1.6 million remaining to be paid under our retention agreements.

As permitted under Delaware law, we have agreements whereby we indemnify our officers and directors for certain events or occurrences while the officer or director is, or was serving, at our request in such capacity. The indemnification period covers all pertinent events and occurrences during the officer's or director's lifetime. The maximum potential amount of future payments we could be required to make under these indemnification agreements is unlimited; however, we have director and officer insurance coverage that limits our exposure and enables us to recover a portion of any future amounts paid. We believe the estimated fair value of these indemnification agreements in excess of applicable insurance coverage is minimal.

As part of our limited partnership interests in Adobe Ventures, we have provided a general indemnification to Granite Ventures, an independent venture capital firm and sole general partner of Adobe Ventures, for certain events or occurrences while Granite Ventures is, or was serving, at our request in such capacity provided that Granite Ventures acts in good faith on behalf of the partnerships. We are unable to develop an estimate of the maximum potential amount of future payments that could potentially result from any hypothetical future claim, but believe the risk of having to make any payments under this general indemnification to be remote.

We accrue for costs associated with future obligations which include costs for undetected bugs that are discovered only after the product is installed and used by customers. The accrual remaining as of June 4, 2004 primarily relates to our digital video software products. The table below summarizes the activity related to the accrual for the six months ended June 4, 2004:

Balance at November 28, 2003	Accruals	Payments	Balance at June 4, 2004
$ 3,185	$ 114	$ (3,185)	$ 114

Legal Actions

In early 2002, International Typeface Corporation ("ITC") and Agfa Monotype Corporation ("AMT"), companies which have common ownership and management, each charged, by way of informal letters to Adobe, that Adobe's distribution of font software, which generates ITC and AMT typefaces, breaches its contracts with ITC and AMT, respectively, pursuant to which Adobe licensed certain rights with respect to ITC and AMT typefaces. AMT and ITC further charged that Adobe violated the Digital Millennium Copyright Act ("DMCA") with respect to, or induced or contributed to, the infringement of copyrights in, ITC's and AMT's TrueType font software.

On September 4, 2002, Adobe initiated arbitration proceedings in London, England ("the London Arbitration") against AMT, seeking a declaration that Adobe's distribution of font software that generates AMT typefaces did not breach its contract pursuant to which it licensed certain rights with respect to AMT typefaces and, therefore, that AMT did not have the right to terminate the agreement. AMT made certain breach of contract claims in response to Adobe's arbitration demand. On June 28, 2004, the arbitrators held that the contract remains in full force and that AMT does not have the right to terminate it. The arbitrators found in favor of AMT on only one of its three claims, but have not yet ruled on whether AMT is entitled to recover any damages from Adobe on that claim. We believe that a damage award, if any, will not have a material adverse effect on Adobe.

On September 5, 2002, AMT and ITC filed suit against Adobe in the U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Illinois ("the Illinois Action"), asserting only that Adobe's distribution of the superseded 5.0 version of Adobe Acrobat violated the DMCA.

On November 13, 2002, ITC filed another suit against Adobe in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Illinois, asserting that Adobe breached its contract with ITC and that ITC, not Adobe, owns the copyrights in font software created by Adobe which generates ITC typefaces.

If ITC prevails on its breach of contract claims in the second Illinois action, ITC may have the right to terminate Adobe's right to distribute any of its products that then still contain font software that generates ITC typefaces. The results of any litigation are inherently uncertain and we cannot assure that we will be able to successfully defend ourselves against the actions described above. AMT and ITC seek an unspecified aggregate dollar amount of damages in the Illinois actions. A favorable outcome for AMT or ITC in these actions could have a material adverse effect on Adobe's financial position, cash flows or results of operations. We believe that all of AMT's and ITC's remaining claims are without merit and we are vigorously defending against them. We cannot estimate any possible loss at this time.

On September 6, 2002, Plaintiff Fred B. Dufresne filed suit against Adobe, Microsoft Corporation, Macromedia, Inc. and Trellix Corporation in the U.S. District Court, District of Massachusetts, alleging infringement of U.S. Patent No. 5,835,712, entitled "Client-Server System Using Embedded Hypertext Tags for Application and Database Development." The Plaintiff's complaint asserts that "Defendants have infringed, and continue to infringe, one or more claims of the '712 patent by making, using, selling and/or offering for sale, inter alia, products supporting Microsoft Active Server Pages technology." The plaintiff seeks unspecified compensatory damages, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief, trebling of damages for "willful infringement," and fees and costs. We believe the action has no merit and are vigorously defending against it. We cannot estimate any possible loss at this time.

On November 18, 2002, Plaintiffs Shell & Slate Software Corporation and Ben Weiss filed a civil action in the U.S. District Court in Los Angeles against Adobe alleging false designation of origin, trade secret misappropriation, breach of contract and other causes of action. The claim derives from the Plaintiffs' belief that the "healing brush" technique of Adobe Photoshop software incorporates the Plaintiffs' trade secrets. The Plaintiffs seek preliminary and permanent injunctive relief, compensatory, treble and punitive damages and fees and costs. We believe the action has no merit and are vigorously defending against it. On September 9, 2003, Adobe filed a counter-claim against Ben Weiss for breach of contract and misappropriation of trade secrets. Adobe seeks injunctive relief against any use of Adobe's trade secrets. Adobe seeks compensatory, statutory and punitive damages. We cannot estimate any possible loss at this time.

On June 2, 2004, Plaintiff Information Technology Innovation, LLC filed suit against Adobe in the U.S. District Court, District of Colorado, alleging infringement of U.S. Patent No. 5,892,908, entitled "Method of Extracting Network Information." The Plaintiff's complaint asserts that Adobe infringes the "908 patent by making, using and selling "Acrobat Standard and Professional products". The plaintiff seeks unspecified compensatory damages, injunctive relief, and fees and costs. Adobe has not yet been served with the complaint. We believe the action has no merit, and if served, will vigorously defend against it. We cannot estimate any possible loss at this time.

From time to time, in addition to those identified above, Adobe is subject to legal proceedings, claims, investigations and proceedings in the ordinary course of business, including claims of alleged infringement of third-party patents and other intellectual property rights, commercial, employment and other matters. In accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, Adobe makes a provision for a liability when it is both probable that a liability has been incurred and the amount of the loss can be reasonably estimated. These provisions are reviewed at least quarterly and adjusted to reflect the impacts of negotiations, settlements, rulings, advice of legal counsel, and other information and events pertaining to a particular case. Litigation is inherently unpredictable. However, we believe that we have valid defenses with respect to the legal matters pending against Adobe. It is possible, nevertheless, that our financial position, cash flows or results of operations could be affected in any particular period by the resolution of one or more of these contingencies.

NOTE 9. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

In accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 133 ("SFAS 133"), "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities" we recognize derivative instruments and hedging activities as either assets or liabilities on the balance sheet and measure them at fair value. Gains and losses resulting from changes in fair value are accounted for depending on the use of the derivative and whether it is designated and qualifies for hedge accounting.

Economic Hedging—Hedges of Forecasted Transactions

We use option and forward foreign exchange contracts to hedge certain operational ("cash flow") exposures resulting from changes in foreign currency exchange rates. These foreign exchange contracts, carried at fair value, may have maturities between one and twelve months. Such cash flow exposures result from portions of our forecasted revenues denominated in currencies other than the U.S. dollar, primarily the Japanese yen and the euro. We enter into these foreign exchange contracts to hedge forecasted product licensing revenue in the normal course of business, and accordingly, they are not speculative in nature.

We record changes in the intrinsic value of these cash flow hedges in accumulated other comprehensive income (loss), until the forecasted transaction occurs. When the forecasted transaction occurs, we reclassify the related gain or loss on the cash flow hedge to revenue. In the event the underlying forecasted transaction does not occur, or it becomes probable that it will not occur, we reclassify the gain or loss on the related cash flow hedge from accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) to interest and other income (loss) on the consolidated statement of income at that time. For the three and six months ended June 4, 2004, there were no such net gains or losses recognized in other income relating to hedges of forecasted transactions that did not occur.

The critical terms of the cash flow hedging instruments are the same as the underlying forecasted transactions. The changes in fair value of the derivatives are intended to offset changes in the expected cash flows from the forecasted transactions. We record any ineffective portion of the hedging instruments in other income (loss) on the consolidated statement of income. The time value of purchased derivative instruments is deemed to be ineffective and is recorded in other income (loss) over the life of the contract.

	$ (1,569)	$ (3,168)	$ (2,447)	$ (3,206)

Interest Rate Hedging—Hedging of Interest Rate Sensitive Obligations

We entered into interest rate swap agreements to manage our exposure to operating lease obligations that are tied to short-term interest rates. The swaps allow us to exchange variable interest rate payments for fixed interest rate payments, thereby securing a fixed payment amount for a portion of the total obligation. As of June 4, 2004, we had entered into interest rate swaps to hedge the floating cash flow payments associated with $121.8 million of our outstanding lease obligations. The swaps mature at various dates in the third quarter of 2004, consistent with the expiration of the underlying facility lease. Under the swap agreements, we will receive a variable rate based on one month LIBOR and pay fixed rates ranging from 3.13% to 5.14%. The impact of these swaps will cap a portion of our rent expense at these levels.

These swaps are designated as cash flow hedges under SFAS No. 133 because they hedge against changes in the amount of future cash flows. As of June 4, 2004, a $0.6 million unrealized loss was recorded in accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) as a result of the decrease in fair market value of these interest rate hedges. There was no realized gain or loss due to ineffectiveness of the hedges.

Balance Sheet Hedging—Hedging of Foreign Currency Assets and Liabilities

We hedge our net recognized foreign currency assets and liabilities with forward foreign exchange contracts to reduce the risk that our earnings and cash flows will be adversely affected by changes in foreign currency exchange rates. These derivative instruments hedge assets and liabilities that are denominated in foreign currencies and are carried at fair value with changes in the fair value recorded as other income (loss). These derivative instruments do not subject us to material balance sheet risk due to exchange rate movements because gains and losses on these derivatives offset gains and losses on the assets and liabilities being hedged. At June 4, 2004, the outstanding balance sheet hedging derivatives had maturities of 90 days or less.

Net gains recognized in other income (loss) relating to balance sheet hedging for the three and six months ended June 4, 2004 and May 30, 2003 were as follows:

Fair Value Hedges—Hedging of Foreign Currency Denominated Available for Sale Securities

A portion of our investment portfolio is invested in euro denominated securities. In order to mitigate the currency risk of those euro denominated securities, we have entered into forward contracts. We have designated these forward contracts as fair value hedges.

Net gains recognized in other income (loss) relating to fair value hedges for the three and six months ended June 4, 2004 and May 30, 2003 were as follows:

NOTE 10. COMPREHENSIVE INCOME

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 130 ("SFAS 130"), "Reporting Comprehensive Income," establishes standards for the reporting and display of comprehensive income and its components in the financial statements. Items of comprehensive income that we currently report are unrealized gains and losses on marketable securities categorized as available-for-sale and foreign currency translation adjustments. We also report gains and losses on derivative instruments qualifying as cash flow hedges such as (i) hedging a forecasted transaction, (ii) the variability of cash flows to be received or paid related to a recognized asset or liability ("cash flow hedge"), (iii) foreign currency cash-flow hedges, and (iv) interest rate hedges.

The following table sets forth the components of comprehensive income, net of income tax expense, for the three and six months ended June 4, 2004 and May 30, 2003:

	Three Months		Six Months
	2004	2003	2004	2003

Total comprehensive income, net of taxes	$ 99,399	$ 67,397	$ 229,015	$ 121,915

NOTE 11. NET INCOME PER SHARE

Basic net income per share is computed using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the period, excluding unvested restricted stock. Diluted net income per share is based upon the weighted average common shares outstanding for the period plus dilutive common equivalent shares, including unvested restricted common stock and stock options using the treasury stock method.

The following table sets forth the computation of basic and diluted net income per share for the three and six months ended June 4, 2004 and May 30, 2003:

	Three Months		Six Months
	2004	2003	2004	2003

NOTE 12. INDUSTRY SEGMENTS

We have four reportable segments that offer different product lines: Digital Imaging and Video, Creative Professional, Intelligent Documents and OEM PostScript and Other. The Digital Imaging and Video segment provides users with software for creating, editing, enhancing and sharing digital images and photographs, digital video, audio and animations. The Creative Professional segment provides software for professional page layout, professional Web page layout, graphic and illustration creation, technical document publishing and business publishing. Additionally, this segment provides digital imaging software with its Adobe Creative Suite products. The Intelligent Documents segment provides electronic document distribution software that allows users to create, enhance, annotate and securely send Adobe PDF files that can be shared, viewed, navigated and printed exactly as intended on a broad range of hardware and software platforms. In addition, this segment provides server-based solutions for private and public sector enterprises, in the areas of document generation, document process management, document collaboration, and document control and security. The OEM PostScript and Other segment includes printing technology used to create and print simple or visually rich documents with precision.

The accounting policies of the operating segments are the same as those described in the summary of significant accounting policies. With the exception of goodwill, we do not identify or allocate our assets by operating segments. See Note 3 for the allocation of goodwill to our reportable segments.

(a) Total operating expenses include research and development, sales and marketing and general and administrative.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following discussion (presented in millions, except share and per share amounts, and is unaudited) should be read in conjunction with the condensed consolidated financial statements and notes thereto.

In addition to historical information, this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q contains forward-looking statements, including statements regarding product plans and investing activities, that involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially. Factors that might cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to, those discussed in the section entitled "Factors That May Affect Future Performance." You should carefully review the risks described herein and in other documents we file from time to time with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the Annual Report on Form 10-K for fiscal 2003 and the other Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q filed by us in fiscal 2004. When used in this report, the words "expects," "could," "would," "may," "anticipates," "intends," "plans," "believes," "seeks," "targets," "estimates," "looks for," "looks to," and similar expressions, as well as statements regarding Adobe's focus for the future, are generally intended to identify forward-looking statements. You should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. We undertake no obligation to publicly release any revisions to the forward-looking statements or reflect events or circumstances after the date of this document.

BUSINESS OVERVIEW

Founded in 1982, Adobe offers a line of software for consumers, creative professionals, and enterprises, in both private and public sectors. Our products enable customers to create, manage and deliver visually rich, compelling and reliable content. We distribute our products through a network of distributors and dealers, VARs, systems integrators, independent software vendors ("ISVs") and OEMs; direct to end users; and through our own Web site at www.adobe.com. We also license our technology to major hardware manufacturers, software developers and service providers and we offer integrated software solutions to businesses of all sizes. We have operations in the Americas, EMEA, and Asia. Our software runs on Microsoft Windows, Apple Macintosh, Linux, UNIX and various non-personal computer platforms, depending on the product.

We maintain executive offices and principal facilities at 345 Park Avenue, San Jose, California 95110-2704. Our telephone number is 408-536-6000. We maintain a Web site at www.adobe.com. Investors can obtain copies of our SEC filings from this site free of charge, as well as from the SEC Web site at www.sec.gov.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES

In preparing our consolidated financial statements, we make assumptions, judgments and estimates that can have a significant impact on our net revenue, operating income and net income, as well as on the value of certain assets and liabilities on our consolidated balance sheet. We base our assumptions, judgments and estimates on historical experience and various other factors that we believe to be reasonable under the circumstances. Actual results could differ materially from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions. On a regular basis we evaluate our assumptions, judgments and estimates and make changes accordingly. We believe that the assumptions, judgments and estimates involved in the accounting for revenue recognition and income taxes have the greatest potential impact on our consolidated financial statements, so we consider these to be our critical accounting policies. We discuss below the critical accounting estimates associated with these policies. Historically, our assumptions, judgments and estimates relative to our critical accounting policies have not differed materially from actual results. For further information on the summary of our critical accounting policies, see Note 1 of our Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

Revenue Recognition

We recognize revenue in accordance with current generally accepted accounting principles that have been prescribed for the software industry. Revenue recognition requirements in the software industry are very complex and are subject to change. Our revenue recognition policy is one of our critical accounting policies because revenue is a key component of our results of operations and is based on complex rules which require us to make judgments and estimates. In applying our revenue recognition policy we must determine which portions of our revenue are recognized currently and which portions must be deferred. In order to determine current and deferred revenue, we make judgments and estimates with regard to future deliverable products and services and the appropriate pricing for those products and services. Our assumptions and judgments regarding future products and services could differ from actual events, thus materially impacting our financial position and results of operations.

We have to estimate provisions for returns which are recorded against our revenues. In determining our estimate for returns, and in accordance with our internal policy regarding channel inventory, we rely upon historical data, the estimated amount of product in our distribution channel, the rate at which our product sells through to the end user, product plans and other factors. Our estimated provisions for returns can vary from what actually occurs. More or less product may be returned from what was estimated. The amount of inventory in the channel could be different than what is estimated. Our estimate of the rate of sell through for product in the channel could be different than what actually occurs. These factors and unanticipated changes in the economic and industry environment could make our return estimates differ from actual returns, thus materially impacting our financial position and results of operations.

Income Taxes

We provide for the effect of income taxes on our financial position and results of operations in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes." Under this accounting pronouncement, income tax expense is recognized for the amount of taxes payable or refundable for the current year and for deferred tax liabilities and assets for the future tax consequences of events that have been recognized in an entity's financial statements or tax returns. Management must make assumptions, judgments and estimates to determine our current provision for income taxes and also our deferred tax assets and liabilities and any valuation allowance to be recorded against our net deferred tax asset. Our judgments, assumptions and estimates relative to the current provision for income tax take into account current tax laws, our interpretation of current tax laws and possible outcomes of current and future audits conducted by foreign and domestic tax authorities. Changes in tax law or our interpretation of tax laws and the resolution of current and future tax audits could significantly impact the amounts provided for income taxes in our financial position and results of operations. Our assumptions, judgments and estimates relative to the value of our net deferred tax asset take into account predictions of the amount and category of future taxable income. Actual operating results and the underlying amount and category of income in future years could render our current assumptions, judgments and estimates of recoverable net deferred taxes inaccurate, thus materially impacting our financial position and results of operations.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Overview of the Three and Six Months Ended June 4, 2004

During the second quarter of fiscal 2004, we continued to focus on delivering comprehensive technology platforms for enterprises and creative professionals to drive revenue and earnings growth. Our latest Acrobat desktop products, released during fiscal 2003, continued to perform well and this indicates we are making progress against our Intelligent Documents segment strategy to increase the adoption of Acrobat. Our Intelligent Documents initiatives to deliver a comprehensive server-based platform to help governments and enterprises improve their business processes also have achieved both strong sequential and year-over-year revenue growth. Additionally, our strategy of providing creative professionals a complete design platform is resonating with our customers. The success we achieved in fiscal 2003 and the first quarter of fiscal 2004 in our Creative Professional business segment continued in the second quarter of fiscal 2004 due to strong licensing of our Adobe Creative Suite and CS products.

We continue to focus on delivering innovative products and solutions for our customers. However, our success could be limited by several factors, including the timely release of new products, continued market acceptance of our products, the introduction of new products by existing or new competitors and unfavorable exchange rate fluctuations. For a further discussion of these and other risk factors, see the section titled "Factors That May Affect Future Performance."

We have four reportable segments that offer different product lines: Digital Imaging and Video, Creative Professional, Intelligent Documents, and OEM PostScript and Other. The Digital Imaging and Video segment provides users with software for creating, editing, enhancing and sharing digital images and photographs, digital video, audio and animations. The Creative Professional segment provides software for professional page layout, professional Web page layout, graphic and illustration creation, technical document publishing and business publishing. Additionally, this segment provides digital imaging software with its Adobe Creative Suite products. The Intelligent Documents segment provides electronic document distribution software that allows users to create, enhance, annotate and securely send Adobe PDF files that can be shared, viewed, navigated and printed exactly as intended on a broad range of hardware and software platforms. In addition, this segment provides server-based solutions for private and public sector enterprises, in the areas of document generation, document process management, document collaboration, and document control and security. The OEM PostScript and Other segment includes printing technology used to create and print simple or visually rich documents with precision.

Our services and support revenue is composed of professional services (such as consulting services and training) and maintenance and support, primarily related to the licensing of our Intelligent Documents server solution products. Our support revenue also includes technical support and developer support to partners and developer organizations related to our desktop products. Our professional services revenue is recognized using the percentage of completion method and is measured monthly based on input measures, such as on hours incurred to date compared to total estimated hours to complete, with consideration given to output measures, such as contract milestones, when applicable. Our maintenance and support offerings, which entitle customers to receive product upgrades and enhancements or technical support, depending on the offering, is recognized ratably over the term of the arrangement.

* Includes services and support revenue.

Revenue from our Digital Imaging and Video segment increased during the three months ended June 4, 2004 primarily due to an increase in revenues from our digital video software products. Overall, revenue from our digital video software products increased 21% during the three months ended June 4, 2004 which was attributable to new releases during the quarter. Revenue from our digital imaging software products increased slightly during the three months ended June 4, 2004 due to continued success with Adobe Photoshop CS which was released at the end of fiscal 2003. Revenue from our Digital Imaging and Video segment increased during the six months ended June 4, 2004 primarily due to an increase in revenues from our digital imaging software products. Overall, revenues from our digital imaging software products increased 10% during the six months ended June 4, 2004 which was mainly attributable to the continued success of Adobe Photoshop CS. Revenue from our digital video software products increased 20% during the six months ended June 4, 2004, which was attributable to new releases during the second quarter of fiscal 2004. The revenue from our digital imaging software products for the three and six months ended June 4, 2004 reflects the shift in reporting some Photoshop revenue as part of our Creative Professional segment as some customers purchase our Adobe Creative Suite products rather than our standalone products.

Revenue from our Creative Professional segment increased during the three and six months ended June 4, 2004 primarily due to the continued strength of our Adobe Creative Suite products which were initially released in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2003. The increase in revenues from our Adobe Creative Suite products were partially offset by decreases in revenues from our layout software products due to customers licensing Adobe Creative Suite instead of our standalone products.

Revenue from our Intelligent Documents segment increased during the three and six months ended June 4, 2004 primarily due to the 23% and 33% increase in revenues, respectively, from our Acrobat desktop products. The increase in revenues from our Acrobat desktop products is due to continued adoption of Acrobat desktop products which were launched in second quarter of fiscal 2003. Additionally, revenue from our Intelligent Documents server-based products increased approximately 40% during the three and six months ended June 4, 2004 due to increased licensing, as we continue to focus on both the government sector and financial services, and increased server support revenue.

Revenue from our OEM PostScript and Other segment decreased during the three and six months ended June 4, 2004 primarily due to a decline in pricing resulting from competition from clone PostScript technologies.

Geographical revenues

Total revenues	$ 410.1	$ 320.1	28%	$ 833.4	$ 617.0	35%

Revenue in the Americas increased during the three months ended June 4, 2004 due to the strength of our Creative Professional products. Revenue in the Americas increased during the six months ended June 4, 2004 due to the strength of our Creative Professional and Intelligent Document products.

Revenue in EMEA increased during the three and six months ended June 4, 2004 due to the strength of our Creative Professional, Intelligent Document and Digital Imaging and Video products.

Revenue in Asia increased during the three months ended June 4, 2004 due to the strength of our Creative Professional and Intelligent Documents products. Revenue in Asia increased during the six months ended June 4, 2004 due to the strength of our Creative Professional, Intelligent Document and Digital Imaging and Video products.

Additionally, revenues in EMEA and Asia increased approximately $16 million and $45 million during the three and six months ended June 4, 2004, respectively, over the same reporting periods last year due to the strength of the euro and the yen.

Application platform mix*

	Three Months		Six Months
	2004	2003	2004	2003
Windows	72%	73%	72%	74%
Macintosh	28%	27%	28%	26%

* Total application platform mix excludes platform independent and UNIX revenue

Macintosh application revenue increased in recent quarters due to the successful launch of our Creative Professional applications, including Adobe Creative Suite and new CS versions of Illustrator, InDesign and Photoshop, which have large Macintosh customer bases. However, we expect the growth trend towards the Windows platform to continue over the long term due to our targeting of business users with our Intelligent Documents desktop products, where the significant majority of users run the Windows operating system.

In our experience, the actual amount of product backlog at any particular time is not a meaningful indicator of our future business prospects. Prior to major product releases, we tend to have significant levels of backlog, but at other times backlog is minimal and we normally ship products within a few days of receiving an order, subject to credit verification and the targeted global channel inventory position under our global channel inventory policy. Backlog is also subject to variability beyond the targeted global channel inventory position under our global channel inventory policy at the end of a reporting period, in amounts usually less than 5% of reported revenue. At the end of the second quarter of fiscal 2004, our backlog beyond the targeted channel inventory position was higher than usual, but lower than it was at the end of the first quarter of fiscal 2004.

Our channel inventory position was below company policy at the end of the second quarter of fiscal 2004. Despite stronger than typical backlog of channel orders at the end of the second quarter of fiscal 2004, we elected to take what we believe to be a conservative approach regarding channel inventory levels. We made this decision because we have not experienced a complete cycle of the new Adobe Creative Suite products, combined with typical softer seasonal demand in the third quarter.

Cost of Revenue for the Three and Six Months Ended June 4, 2004 and May 30, 2003

	Three Months			Six Months
	2004	2003	Percent Change	2004	2003	Percent Change
Product	$ 23.2	$ 20.2	15%	$ 43.6	$ 39.6	10%

Services and support	4.0	3.1	29%	7.8	6.1	27%
Percentage of total revenues	1%	1%		1%	1%
Total revenues	$ 27.2	$ 23.3	17%	$ 51.4	$ 45.7	13%

Cost of product revenue includes product packaging, third-party royalties, excess and obsolete inventory, amortization related to localization costs and acquired technologies and the costs associated with the manufacturing of our products.

Cost of product revenue increased during the three and six months ended June 4, 2004 as compared to the three and six months ended May 30, 2003 primarily due to a one time charge related to a litigation settlement that occurred during the second quarter of fiscal 2004.

Cost of services and support revenue is composed primarily of employee-related costs and the related costs incurred to provide consulting services, training and product support.

Cost of services and support revenue increased during the three and six months ended June 4, 2004 as compared to the three and six months ended May 30, 2003 due primarily to costs associated with our Expert Support program that was initiated during the second quarter of fiscal 2004. Additionally, cost of services and support revenue increased due to increases in compensation and related benefits as a result of higher headcount and incentive compensation.

Operating Expenses for the Three and Six Months Ended June 4, 2004 and May 30, 2003

	Three Months			Six Months
	2004	2003	Percent Change	2004	2003	Percent Change
Research and development	$ 76.1	$ 69.1	10%	$ 151.1	$ 135.1	12%
Percentage of total revenues	19%	22%		18%	22%

Research and development expenses consist of salary and benefit expenses for software developers, contracted development efforts, related facilities costs and expenses associated with computer equipment used in software development.

Research and development expenses increased 7% and 10% during the three and six months ended June 4, 2004 as compared to the three and six months ended May 30, 2003, respectively, due to compensation and related benefits associated with headcount growth and higher incentive compensation. Additionally, the six months ended June 4, 2004 included an extra week of expenses as a result of our ⁵²/₅₃ week fiscal year. The remaining increase in research and development expenses for the three and six months ended June 4, 2004 was due to various individually insignificant items.

We believe that investments in research and development, including the recruiting and hiring of software developers, are critical to remain competitive in the marketplace and are directly related to continued timely development of new and enhanced products. We will continue to focus on long-term opportunities available in our end markets and make significant investments in the development of our desktop application and server-based software products.

	Three Months			Percent Change	Six Months			Percent Change
	2004	2003			2004	2003
Sales and marketing	$ 130.6	$ 105.7		24%	$ 257.9	$ 203.7		27%
Percentage of total revenues	32%	33%			31%	33%

Sales and marketing expenses include salary and benefit expenses, sales commissions, travel expenses and related facilities costs for our sales, marketing, customer support, order management and order fulfillment personnel. Sales and marketing expenses also include the costs of programs aimed at increasing revenue, such as advertising, trade shows, public relations and other market development programs.

Sales and marketing expenses increased 11% and 12% during the three and six months ended June 4, 2004 as compared to the three and six months ended May 30, 2003, respectively, due to increased marketing spending related to product launches as well as overall marketing efforts to further increase revenues. Sales and marketing expenses also increased 9% and 12%, respectively, due to compensation and related benefits associated with headcount growth and higher incentive compensation. Additionally, the six months ended June 4, 2004 included an extra week of expenses as a result of our ⁵²/₅₃ week fiscal year. The remaining increase in sales and marketing expenses for the three and six months ended June 4, 2004 was due to various individually insignificant items.

General and administrative	$ 34.4	$ 30.5		13%	$ 67.8	$ 60.5		12%
Percentage of total revenues	8%	10%			8%	10%

General and administrative expenses consist of salary and benefit expenses, travel expenses and related facilities costs for our finance, human resources, legal, information services and executive personnel. General and administrative expenses also include outside legal and accounting fees, provision for bad debts and expenses associated with computer equipment and software used in the administration of the business.

General and administrative expenses increased 5% and 13% during the three and six months ended June 4, 2004 as compared to the three and six months ended May 30, 2003, respectively, due to compensation and related benefits associated with headcount growth and higher incentive compensation. During the three months ended June 4, 2004, general and administrative expenses also increased 5% due to increased legal and insurance costs. The remaining increase in general and administrative expenses for the three months ended June 4, 2004 was due to various individually insignificant items. Overall general and administrative expenses for the six months ended June 4, 2004 included an extra week of expenses as a result of our ⁵²/₅₃ week fiscal year. The increase in general and administrative expenses for the six months ended June 4, 2004 was partially offset by a decrease in bad debt expense resulting from the settlement of an account.

Non-operating Income for the Three and Six Months Ended June 4, 2004 and May 30, 2003

Total non-operating income (loss)	$ 6.0	$ 0.3	*%	$ 9.0	$ (2.7)	*%

* Percentage is not meaningful.

Investment Gain (Loss)

Investment gain (loss) consists principally of realized gains or losses from the sale of marketable equity investments, other-than-temporary declines in the value of marketable and non-marketable equity securities and gains and losses of Adobe Ventures.

During the three months ended June 4, 2004, investment gains included gains related to our Adobe Ventures and our cost method investments totaling $0.4 million. Gains on short-term investments were $0.5 million. During the six months ended June 4, 2004, investment losses included losses related to our Adobe Ventures and our cost method investments totaling $0.9 million. These losses were partially offset by gains from short-term investments of $0.2 million and gains on sales of equity securities of $0.5 million.

During the three months ended May 30, 2003, investment losses included losses related to our Adobe Ventures and our cost method investments totaling $3.6 million. During the six months ended May 30, 2003, investment losses included write-downs due to other-than-temporary declines in value of $3.9 million related to our short-term investments. Investment losses also included losses related to our Adobe Ventures and our cost method investments totaling $7.2 million. These losses were partially offset by gains from the sale of our marketable equity securities of $0.8 million.

We are uncertain of future investment gains and losses, as they are primarily dependent upon market conditions and the operations of the underlying investee companies.

Interest and Other Income

The largest component of interest and other income is interest earned on cash, cash equivalents and short-term fixed income investments, but also includes gains and losses on the sale of fixed income investments, foreign exchange transaction gains and losses, and interest expense.

Interest and other income increased during the three and six months ended June 4, 2004 as compared to the three and six months ended May 30, 2003 due to increased interest income as a result of higher levels of cash during fiscal 2004.

Provision for Income Taxes for the Three and Six Months Ended June 4, 2004 and May 30, 2003

	Three Months			Six Months
	2004	2003	Percent Change	2004	2003	Percent Change
Provision for income taxes	$ 38.4	$ 27.5	40%	$ 81.7	$ 50.8	61%
Percentage of total revenues	9%	9%		10%	8%
Effective tax rate	26%	30%		26%	30%

Our effective tax rate decreased in the three and six months ended June 4, 2004 as compared to the three and six months ended May 30, 2003 due to higher international profits which are taxed at a lower effective tax rate.

FACTORS THAT MAY AFFECT FUTURE PERFORMANCE

As previously discussed, our actual results could differ materially from our forward looking statements. Factors that might cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to, those discussed below. These and many other factors described in this report could adversely affect our operations, performance and financial condition.

Adverse changes in general economic or political conditions in any of the major countries in which we do business

If the economy worsens in any geographic areas where we do business, it would likely cause our future results to vary materially from our targets. A slower economy may also adversely affect our ability to grow. Political instability in any of the major countries in which we do business may also adversely affect our business.

Delays in development or shipment of our new products or major new versions of existing products

Any delays or failures in developing and marketing our products, including upgrades of current products, may have a harmful impact on our results of operations. Our inability to extend our core technologies into new applications and new platforms and to anticipate or respond to technological changes could affect continued market acceptance of our products and our ability to develop new products. A portion of our future revenue will come from new applications. Delays in product or upgrade introductions could cause a decline in our revenue, earnings or stock price. We cannot determine the ultimate effect these delays or the introduction of new products or upgrades will have on our revenue or results of operations.

Introduction of new products by existing and new competitors, particularly Microsoft

The end markets for our software products are intensely and increasingly competitive, and are significantly affected by product introductions and market activities of industry competitors. Microsoft has an electronic form tool called InfoPath included as part of its latest professional Office product that competes with certain aspects of our Intelligent Documents product line. Given Microsoft's market dominance, InfoPath, or any new competitive Microsoft product or technology that is bundled as part of its Office product or operating system, could harm our overall Intelligent Documents market opportunity. In addition, Microsoft is working on the next generation of its Windows operating system, codenamed Longhorn. It is anticipated that Microsoft will add new electronic document capabilities to Longhorn, potentially providing additional competition to our Intelligent Document products and solutions. We are also seeing an increase in competition from clone PDF products marketed by other companies. Microsoft also has increased its presence in the low-end and mid-range consumer digital imaging markets. Additionally, digital camera manufacturers have begun to bundle their own or our competitors' digital video software products with their digital camera products. If these competing products achieve widespread acceptance, our operating results could suffer. In addition, consolidation has occurred among some of the competitors in our markets. Any further consolidations among our competitors may result in stronger competitors and may therefore harm our results of operations.

Difficulties in transitions to new business models or markets

We are devoting significant resources to the development of technologies and service offerings to address demands in the marketplace for document generation, document process management, document collaboration, and document control and security. As a result, we are transitioning to new business models and seeking to broaden our customer base in the enterprise and government markets, requiring a considerable investment of technical, financial and sales resources. Many of our competitors may have advantages over us due to their larger presence, deeper experience in the enterprise and government markets, and greater sales and marketing resources. It is our intent to form strategic alliances with leading enterprise and government solutions and service providers to provide additional resources to further enable penetration of the enterprise and government markets. If we are unable to successfully enter into strategic alliances, or if they are not as productive as we anticipate, our market penetration may not proceed as rapidly as we anticipate and our results of operations could be negatively impacted.

We recently launched our Adobe Creative Suite products. Our limited operating history with these products makes it difficult to predict the revenue effect of the Adobe Creative Suite product cycle and the individual products integrated within the Adobe Creative Suite.

Changes in demand for application software, computers and printers

We offer our application-based products primarily on Windows and Macintosh platforms and on some UNIX platforms. We generally offer our server-based products, but not desktop products, on the Linux platform as well as the Windows and UNIX platforms. To the extent that there is a slowdown of customer purchases of personal computers on either the Windows or Macintosh platform or in general, or to the extent that significant demand arises for our products or competitive products on the Linux desktop platform before we choose and are able to offer our products on this platform, our business could be harmed.

Intellectual property disputes and litigation

In connection with the enforcement of our own intellectual property rights or in connection with disputes relating to the validity or alleged infringement of third-party rights, including but not limited to patent rights, we have been, are currently and may in the future be subject to claims, negotiations or complex, protracted litigation. Intellectual property disputes and litigation are typically very costly and can be disruptive to our business operations by diverting the attention and energies of management and key technical personnel. Although we have successfully defended or resolved past litigation and disputes, we may not prevail in any ongoing or future litigation and disputes. Adverse decisions in such litigation or disputes could have negative results, including subjecting us to significant liabilities, requiring us to seek licenses from others, preventing us from manufacturing or licensing certain of our products, or causing severe disruptions to our operations or the markets in which we compete, any one of which could seriously harm our business.

Additionally, although we actively pursue software pirates as part of our enforcement of our intellectual property rights, we do lose revenue due to illegal use of our software. If piracy activities increase, it may further harm our business.

Changes to our distribution channel

We distribute our application products primarily through distributors, resellers, retailers and increasingly systems integrators, ISVs and VARs (collectively referred to as "distributors"). A significant amount of our revenue for application products is from two distributors. In addition, our channel program focuses our efforts on larger distributors, which has resulted in our dependence on a relatively small number of distributors licensing a large amount of our products. Our distributors also sell our competitors' products, and if they favor our competitors' products for any reason, they may fail to market our products as effectively or to devote resources necessary to provide effective sales, which would cause our results to suffer. In addition, the financial health of these distributors and our continuing relationships with them are becoming more important to our success. Some of these distributors may be unable to withstand adverse changes in business conditions. Our business could be seriously harmed if the financial condition of some of these distributors substantially weakens.

Malicious code such as worms and viruses could impact our computer network and applications

Malicious code, such as worms and viruses, are released into the public Internet using recently discovered vulnerabilities in popular software programs. The documents created by our applications, even those with security features, are also vulnerable to malicious acts such as hacking. Although we have a response team that is notified of high-risk malicious events from multiple sources and we take certain preventative measures, these procedures may not be sufficient to avoid harm to our business.

Interruptions or terminations in our relationships with our turnkey assemblers

We currently rely on six turnkey assemblers of our products, with at least two turnkeys located in each major region we serve. If any significant turnkey assembler terminates its relationship with us, or if our supply from any significant turnkey assembler is interrupted or terminated for any other reason, we may not have enough time or be able to replace the supply of products replicated by that turnkey assembler to avoid serious harm to our business.

Our future operating results are difficult to predict and are likely to fluctuate substantially from quarter to quarter

As a result of a variety of factors discussed herein, our quarterly revenues and operating results for a particular period are difficult to predict. Our revenues may grow at a slower rate than experienced in previous periods and, in particular periods, may decline. Additionally, we periodically provide operating model targets for revenue, gross margin, operating expenses, operating margin, other income, tax rate, share count and earnings per share. These targets reflect a number of assumptions, including assumptions about product pricing and demand, economic and seasonal trends, manufacturing costs and volumes, the mix of shrinkwrap and licensing revenue, full and upgrade products, distribution channels and geographic markets. If one or more of these assumptions prove incorrect, our actual results may vary materially from those anticipated, estimated or projected.

Fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates

Our operating results are subject to fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates. We attempt to mitigate a portion of these risks through foreign currency hedging, based on our judgment of the appropriate trade-offs among risk, opportunity and expense. We have established a hedging program to hedge our exposure to foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations, primarily the Japanese yen and the euro. We regularly review our hedging program and will make adjustments based on our judgment. Our hedging activities may not offset more than a portion of the adverse financial impact resulting from unfavorable movement in foreign currency exchange rates.

Changes in accounting rules

We prepare our consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. These principles are subject to interpretation by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and various bodies formed to interpret and create appropriate accounting policies. A change in these policies can have a significant effect on our reported results and may even retroactively affect previously reported transactions. Our accounting policies that recently have been or may be affected by changes in the accounting rules are as follows:

- software revenue recognition
- accounting for stock-based compensation
- accounting for goodwill and other intangible assets
- accounting for guarantees and indemnities

- accounting for variable interest entities
- accounting for business combinations

In particular, FASB guidelines relating to accounting for goodwill could make our acquisition-related charges less predictable in any given reporting period. It is possible that in the future, we may incur less frequent, but larger, impairment charges related to previously recorded goodwill, as well as goodwill arising out of potential future acquisitions. Changes to these rules or current practices may have a significant adverse effect on our reported financial results or in the way in which we conduct our business.

Unanticipated changes in tax rates

Unanticipated changes in our tax rates could affect our future results of operations. Our future effective tax rates could be unfavorably affected by changes in tax laws or the interpretation of tax laws, by unanticipated decreases in the amount of revenue or earnings in countries with low statutory tax rates, or by changes in the valuation of our deferred tax assets and liabilities

In addition, we are subject to the continuous examination of our income tax returns by the Internal Revenue Service and other domestic and foreign tax authorities. We regularly assess the likelihood of adverse outcomes resulting from these examinations to determine the adequacy of our provision for income taxes. There can be no assurance that the outcomes from these continuous examinations will not have an adverse effect on our operating results and financial position.

Market risks associated with our equity investments (as discussed later under "Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk")

We hold equity investments in public companies that have experienced significant declines in market value. We also have investments and may continue to make future investments in privately held companies, many of which are considered in the start-up or development stages. These investments are inherently risky, as the market for the technologies or products these companies have under development is typically in the early stages and may never materialize. Our investment activities can impact our net income. Future price fluctuations in these securities and any significant long-term declines in value of any of our investments could reduce our net income in future periods. We are uncertain about future investment gains and losses, as they are primarily dependent upon the operations of the underlying investee companies.

Our inability to attract and retain key personnel

Much of our future success depends on the continued service and availability of skilled personnel. Experienced personnel in the information technology industry are in high demand and competition for their talents is intense, especially in the Silicon Valley, where the majority of our employees are located. We have relied on our ability to grant stock options as one mechanism for recruiting and retaining such highly skilled personnel. Potential accounting regulations requiring the expensing of stock options may impair our ability to provide these incentives without incurring significant compensation costs. If we are unable to continue to successfully attract and retain key personnel, our business may be harmed.

Future earnings and stock price may be subject to volatility

Due to the factors noted above, our future earnings and stock price may be subject to volatility, particularly on a quarterly basis. Any shortfall in revenue or earnings or any delay in the release of any product or upgrade compared to analysts' or investors' expectations has caused and could cause in the future an immediate and significant decline in the trading price of our common stock. Additionally, we may not learn of such shortfalls or delays until late in the fiscal quarter, which could result in an even more immediate and greater decline in the trading price of our common stock. Finally, we participate in a highly dynamic industry. In addition to factors specific to us, changes in analysts' earnings estimates for us or our industry, and factors affecting the corporate environment, our industry, or the securities markets in general, will often result in volatility of our common stock price.

EMPLOYEE AND DIRECTOR STOCK OPTIONS

Option Program Description

Our stock option program is a long-term retention program that is intended to attract, retain and provide incentives for talented employees, officers and directors, and to align stockholder and employee interests. We consider our option programs critical to our operation and productivity; essentially all of our employees participate. Currently, we grant options from the 1) 2003 Equity Incentive Plan ("2003 Plan"), under which options could be granted to all employees, including executive officers, and outside consultants and 2) the 1996 Outside Directors Stock Option Plan, as amended, under which options are granted automatically under a pre-determined formula to non-employee directors. In addition, our stock option program includes the Adobe 1984 Stock Option Plan, as amended, and the Aldus 1984 Restated Stock Option Plan from which we currently do not grant options. The plans listed above are collectively referred to in the following discussion as "the Plans." Option vesting periods are generally three years for all of the Plans.

All stock option grants to current executive officers are made after a review by and with the approval of the Executive Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. All members of the Executive Compensation Committee are independent directors, as defined in the current rules applicable to issuers listed on the Nasdaq National Market. See the "Report of the Executive Compensation Committee" appearing in our Proxy Statement for further information concerning the policies and procedures, of Adobe and the Executive Compensation Committee, regarding the use of stock options.

Distribution and Dilutive Effect of Options

The table below provides information about stock options granted to our Chief Executive Officer and our four other most highly compensated executive officers, as identified in our 2004 Proxy Statement. This group is referred to as the Named Executive Officers. Please refer to the section headed "Stock Option Exercises and Option Holdings" below for the Named Executive Officers.

Options granted to employees, directors and Named Executive Officers for the six months ended June 4, 2004 and for fiscal year 2003 are summarized as follows:

	2004	2003
Net grants† during the period as % of outstanding shares	2%	(3)%
Net grants to Named Executive Officers during the period as % of total options granted	10%	0%
Net grants to Named Executive Officers during the period as % of outstanding shares	*%	0%
Cumulative options held by Named Executive Officers as % of total options outstanding	16%	16%

† "Net grants" equals the sum of the number of shares subject to options granted to all employees, directors and Named Executive Officers during the specified period reduced by the number of shares subject to options which were canceled or otherwise terminated during such period. Net grants during fiscal 2003 reflect the cancellation of options under our stock option exchange program. Net grants as a percentage of outstanding shares are based on 238.7 million shares and 238.3 million shares of our common stock outstanding as of June 4, 2004 and November 28, 2003, respectively.

* Less than 1%.

General Option Information

The following table sets forth the summary of option activity under our stock option program:

	Six Months Ended June 4, 2004			Year Ended November 28, 2003

Total Options Outstanding	28,854,018	18,769,066	47,623,084	100%

* The closing price of our common stock was $45.42 on June 4, 2004, as reported by the Nasdaq National Market.

Named Executive Officer Option Grants

The following table sets forth information regarding stock options granted during the six months ended June 4, 2004, to our Named Executive Officers. All options were granted with an exercise price equal to the closing price of our common stock on the date of grant. Potential realizable values are net of exercise price, but before taxes associated with exercise. These amounts represent hypothetical gains that could be achieved for the options if exercised at the end of the option term of seven years. The assumed 5% and 10% rates of stock price appreciation are provided for purposes of illustration only and do not represent our estimate or projection of the future price of our common stock. (In actual shares and dollars)

Name	Number of Securities Underlying Options Granted	% of Total Options Granted to Employees(1) Year-to-Date	Exercise Price	Expiration Date	Potential Realizable Value at Assumed Annual Rates of Stock Price Appreciation for Option Term
					5%	10%
Bruce R. Chizen	450,000	5%	$ 43.55	5/19/2011	$ 7,978,151	$ 18,592,483
Shantanu Narayen	150,000	2	43.55	5/19/2011	2,659,384	6,197,494

James Heeger	100,000	1	43.55	5/19/2011	1,772,922	4,131,663

(1) Based on approximately 9.5 million shares subject to options granted to employees under our option plans to date during fiscal 2004.

Stock Option Exercises and Option Holdings

The following table shows stock options exercised by the Named Executive Officers in the six months ended June 4, 2004, including the total value of gains on the date of exercise based on actual sale prices or on the closing price that day if the shares were not sold that day, in each case less the exercise price of the stock options. In addition, the number of shares covered by both exercisable and non-exercisable stock options, as of June 4, 2004, is shown. Also reported are the values for "In-the-Money" options. The dollar amounts shown in the "In-the-Money" column represent the positive spread between the exercise price of any such existing stock options and closing price as of June 4, 2004 of our common stock. (In actual shares and dollars)

Name	Number of Shares Acquired Upon Exercise	Value Realized Upon Exercise(1)	Number of Securities Underlying Unexercised Options at June 4, 2004		Value of Unexercised In-the-Money Options at June 4, 2004(2)
			Exercisable	Unexercisable	Exercisable	Unexercisable
Bruce R. Chizen	—	$ —	2,174,072	1,085,419	$ 15,055,484	$ 12,832,690

James Heeger	—	—	268,749	381,251	3,206,868	4,385,132

(1) The "value realized" represents the total value of gains on the date of exercise based on actual sale prices or on the closing price that day if the shares were not sold that day, in each case less the exercise price of the stock options. See related Section 16 filings for detailed information on dispositions of shares.

(2) Option values are based on $45.42, the closing price of our common stock on June 4, 2004, as reported by the Nasdaq National Market.

Equity Compensation Plan Information

The following table gives information about our common stock that may be issued upon the exercise of options under our existing equity compensation plans as of June 4, 2004:

Equity Compensation Plan Information
Plan Category(1)	Number of Securities to be Issued Upon Exercise of Outstanding Options (a)	Weighted Average Exercise Price of Outstanding Options (b)	Number of Securities Remaining Available for Future Issuance Under Equity Compensation Plans (Excluding Securities Reflected in Column (a)) (c)
Equity compensation plans approved by stockholders	47,619,484	$ 35.07	20,383,173(2)

(1) The information presented in this table excludes options assumed by Adobe in connection with acquisitions of other companies. As of June 4, 2004, 3,600 shares of our common stock were issuable upon the exercise of these assumed options, at a weighted average exercise price of $7.13 per share.

(2) Includes 13.6 million shares that are reserved for issuance under our 1997 Employee Stock Purchase Plan.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

	June 4, 2004	November 28, 2003	Percent Change
Cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments	$ 1,281.2	$ 1,096.5	17%
Working capital	$ 1,063.6	$ 892.5	19%
Stockholders' equity	$ 1,262.3	$ 1,100.8	15%

Our primary source of cash is receipts from revenue. The primary uses of cash are payroll (salaries, bonuses, and benefits), general operating expenses (marketing, travel, office rent) and cost of product revenue. Another source of cash is proceeds from the exercise of employee options and another use of cash is our stock repurchase program, which is detailed below.

Net cash provided by operating activities was $332.5 million for the six months ended June 4, 2004, an increase of $125.0 million from the $207.4 million provided for the six months ended May 30, 2003. Cash provided by operating activities, in the six months ended June 4, 2004, primarily comprised net income, net of non-cash related expenses. Working capital sources of cash were a decrease in accounts receivable and an increase in accrued expenses. Our days sales outstanding in receivables ("DSO") decreased from 36 days to 23 days. Our accounts receivable and DSO decreased due to shipments occurring earlier in the period and increased levels of cash collections. Accrued expenses increased primarily due to compensation costs, sales and marketing programs and other accrued expenses. Working capital uses of cash included a decrease in income taxes payable due to tax payments made for both agreed and disputed tax assessments.

Net cash used for investing activities was $217.3 million for the six months ended June 4, 2004, a decrease of $33.7 million from the $251.0 million used in the six months ended May 30, 2003. Net cash used for investing activities, in the six months ended June 4, 2004, was primarily due to purchases of short-term investments, net of maturities and sales. Additionally, we used $15.5 million, net of cash received of $0.3 million, in connection with our acquisition of Q-Link. See Note 2 of our Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for further information regarding this acquisition. We expect to continue to invest in short-term investments and purchase additional property and equipment to support our growth.

Net cash used for financing activities was $86.2 million in the six months ended June 4, 2004, an increase of $85.1 million from the $1.2 million provided in the six months ended May 30, 2003. During the six months ended June 4, 2004, we repurchased 3.9 million shares as compared to 1.6 million shares during the six months ended May 30, 2003. Cash used for stock repurchases during fiscal 2004 increased from the same period in fiscal 2003 due to a higher average cost per share, a higher number of shares being repurchased, and a $50.0 million prepayment made related to the stock purchase agreement entered into during the second quarter of fiscal 2004 (see Note 7 of our Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for further information). The cost of the repurchases was partially offset by proceeds received from employees exercising their stock options. The increase in proceeds received is due to a higher number of options being exercised as well as higher option exercise prices.

We have paid cash dividends on our common stock each quarter since the second quarter of 1988. Adobe's Board of Directors declared a cash dividend on our common stock of $0.0125 per common share for the second quarter of fiscal 2004. Under the terms of our lease agreements for our San Jose headquarters, we are not prohibited from paying cash dividends unless an event of default occurs. The declaration of future dividends, whether in cash or in-kind, is within the discretion of Adobe's Board of Directors and will depend on business conditions, our results of operations and financial condition, and other factors.

We expect to continue our investing activities, including investments in short-term and long-term investments and purchases of computer systems for research and development, sales and marketing, product support, and administrative staff. Furthermore, cash reserves may be used to repurchase stock under our stock repurchase programs and strategically acquire companies, products or technologies that are complementary to our business.

Adobe uses highly regarded investment management firms to manage most of our invested cash. External investment firms actively managed 90% of Adobe's invested balances during the six months ended June 4, 2004. The fixed income portfolio is primarily invested in municipal bonds within the U.S. and in highly rated corporate and sovereign obligations outside of the U.S. The balance of the fixed income portfolio is managed internally and invested primarily in money market funds for working capital purposes. All investments are made according to guidelines and within compliance of policies approved by the Board of Directors.

Our existing cash, cash equivalents, and investment balances may decline during fiscal 2004 in the event of further weakening of the economy or changes in our planned cash outlay. However, based on our current business plan and revenue prospects, we believe that our existing balances together with our anticipated cash flows from operations will be sufficient to meet our working capital and operating resource expenditure requirements for the next twelve months. Cash from operations could be affected by various risks and uncertainties, including, but not limited to the risks detailed in the section "Factors That May Affect Future Performance." Also, while we currently have no committed lines of credit, we believe that our banking relationships and good credit should afford us the opportunity to raise sufficient debt in the bank or public market, if required.

Stock Repurchase Program I—On-going Dilution Coverage

To facilitate our stock repurchase program designed to minimize dilution from stock issuance primarily from employee stock plans, we repurchase shares in the open market and from time to time enter into structured repurchase agreements with third parties.

Authorization to repurchase shares to cover on-going dilution is not subject to expiration. However, this repurchase program is limited to covering net dilution from stock issuances and is subject to business conditions and cash flow requirements as determined by our Board of Directors from time to time. Refer to Part II, Item 2(e) in this filing for share repurchases during the quarter ended June 4, 2004.

On March 29, 2004, we entered into a stock purchase agreement with a large financial institution. Under this agreement, we have provided the financial institution with an up-front payment of $50.0 million and the financial institution has agreed to deliver to us at certain intervals during the contract term a number of our shares based on the volume weighted average price during such intervals less a specified discount. Upon payment, the $50.0 million was classified as treasury stock on our balance sheet. Refer to Part II, Item 2(e) in this filing for shares delivered pursuant to this agreement during the quarter ended June 4, 2004. At the expiration of this contract on June 30, 2004, we received the remaining shares pursuant to the agreement.

On June 30, 2004, we entered into another stock purchase agreement with a large financial institution. Under this agreement, we have provided the financial institution with an up-front payment of $100.0 million and the financial institution has agreed to deliver to us at certain intervals during the contract term a number of our shares based on the volume weighted average price during such intervals less a specified discount. This contract will expire on or before October 1, 2004.

Stock Repurchase Program II—Additional Authorization above Dilution Coverage

On September 25, 2002, our Board of Directors authorized a program to purchase up to an additional 5.0 million shares of our common stock over a three-year period, subject to certain business and cash flow requirements. We have not made any purchases under this 5.0 million share repurchase program. The authorization for this program will expire in September 2005.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements and Aggregate Contractual Obligations

Our principal commitments as of June 4, 2004 consist of obligations under operating leases, royalty agreements and various service agreements. See Note 8 of our Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for more detailed information.

Lease Commitments

The two lease agreements discussed in Note 8 of our Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements are subject to standard financial covenants. The agreements limit the amount of indebtedness we can incur. A leverage covenant requires us to keep our debt to EBITDA ratio less than 2.5:1.0. As of June 4, 2004 our debt to EBITDA ratio was 0.42, well within the limit. We also have a liquidity covenant which requires us to maintain a quick ratio equal to or greater than 1.0. As of June 4, 2004, our quick ratio was 2.5, well above the minimum. We expect to remain within compliance in the next 12 months. We are comfortable with these limitations and believe they will not impact our cash or credit in the coming year or restrict our ability to execute our business plan.

Indemnifications

In the normal course of business, we provide indemnifications of varying scope to customers against claims of intellectual property infringement made by third parties arising from the use of our products. Historically, costs related to these indemnification provisions have not been significant and we are unable to estimate the maximum potential impact of these indemnification provisions on our future results of operations.

We have commitments to make certain milestone and/or retention payments typically entered into in conjunction with various acquisitions, for which we have made accruals in our consolidated financial statements. In connection with certain acquisitions and purchases of technology assets during fiscal 2003 and 2004, we entered into employee retention agreements totaling $2.7 million and are required to make payments upon satisfaction of certain conditions in the agreements. These costs are being amortized over the retention period to compensation expense. During the second quarter of fiscal 2004, we made payments of $1.1 million. As of June 4, 2004, we have $1.6 million remaining to be paid under our retention agreements.

As permitted under Delaware law, we have agreements whereby we indemnify our officers and directors for certain events or occurrences while the officer or director is, or was serving, at our request in such capacity. The indemnification period covers all pertinent events and occurrences during the officer's or director's lifetime. The maximum potential amount of future payments we could be required to make under these indemnification agreements is unlimited; however, we have director and officer insurance coverage that limits our exposure and enables us to recover a portion of any future amounts paid. We believe the estimated fair value of these indemnification agreements in excess of applicable insurance coverage is minimal.

As part of our limited partnership interests in Adobe Ventures, we have provided a general indemnification to Granite Ventures, an independent venture capital firm and sole general partner of Adobe Ventures, for certain events or occurrences while Granite Ventures is, or was serving, at our request in such capacity provided that Granite Ventures acts in good faith on behalf of the partnerships. We are unable to develop an estimate of the maximum potential amount of future payments that could potentially result from any hypothetical future claim, but believe the risk of having to make any payments under this general indemnification to be remote.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

In comparison with what we disclosed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for fiscal 2003, we believe that there have been no significant changes in our market risk exposures for the quarter ended June 4, 2004.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Based on their evaluation as of June 4, 2004, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, have concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) were sufficiently effective to ensure that the information required to be disclosed by us in this quarterly report on Form 10-Q was recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and Form 10-Q.

There were no changes in our internal controls over financial reporting during the quarter ended June 4, 2004 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect our internal controls over financial reporting.

Our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, does not expect that our disclosure controls and procedures or our internal controls will prevent all error and all fraud. A control system, no matter how well conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the control system are met. Further, the design of a control system must reflect the fact that there are resource constraints, and the benefits of controls must be considered relative to their costs. Because of the inherent limitations in all control systems, no evaluation of controls can provide absolute assurance that all control issues and instances of fraud, if any, within Adobe have been detected.

PART II—OTHER INFORMATION

ITEM 1. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

In early 2002, International Typeface Corporation ("ITC") and Agfa Monotype Corporation ("AMT"), companies which have common ownership and management, each charged, by way of informal letters to Adobe, that Adobe's distribution of font software, which generates ITC and AMT typefaces, breaches its contracts with ITC and AMT, respectively, pursuant to which Adobe licensed certain rights with respect to ITC and AMT typefaces. AMT and ITC further charged that Adobe violated the Digital Millennium Copyright Act ("DMCA") with respect to, or induced or contributed to, the infringement of copyrights in, ITC's and AMT's TrueType font software.

On September 4, 2002, Adobe initiated arbitration proceedings in London, England ("the London Arbitration") against AMT, seeking a declaration that Adobe's distribution of font software that generates AMT typefaces did not breach its contract pursuant to which it licensed certain rights with respect to AMT typefaces and, therefore, that AMT did not have the right to terminate the agreement. AMT made certain breach of contract claims in response to Adobe's arbitration demand. On June 28, 2004, the arbitrators held that the contract remains in full force and that AMT does not have the right to terminate it. The arbitrators found in favor of AMT on only one of its three claims, but have not yet ruled on whether AMT is entitled to recover any damages from Adobe on that claim. We believe that a damage award, if any, will not have a material adverse effect on Adobe.

On September 5, 2002, AMT and ITC filed suit against Adobe in the U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Illinois ("the Illinois Action"), asserting only that Adobe's distribution of the superseded 5.0 version of Adobe Acrobat violated the DMCA.

On November 13, 2002, ITC filed another suit against Adobe in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Illinois, asserting that Adobe breached its contract with ITC and that ITC, not Adobe, owns the copyrights in font software created by Adobe which generates ITC typefaces.

If ITC prevails on its breach of contract claims in the second Illinois action, ITC may have the right to terminate Adobe's right to distribute any of its products that then still contain font software that generates ITC typefaces. The results of any litigation are inherently uncertain and we cannot assure that we will be able to successfully defend ourselves against the actions described above. AMT and ITC seek an unspecified aggregate dollar amount of damages in the Illinois actions. A favorable outcome for AMT or ITC in these actions could have a material adverse effect on Adobe's financial position, cash flows or results of operations. We believe that all of AMT's and ITC's remaining claims are without merit and we are vigorously defending against them.

On September 6, 2002, Plaintiff Fred B. Dufresne filed suit against Adobe, Microsoft Corporation, Macromedia, Inc. and Trellix Corporation in the U.S. District Court, District of Massachusetts, alleging infringement of U.S. Patent No. 5,835,712, entitled "Client-Server System Using Embedded Hypertext Tags for Application and Database Development." The Plaintiff's complaint asserts that "Defendants have infringed, and continue to infringe, one or more claims of the '712 patent by making, using, selling and/or offering for sale, inter alia, products supporting Microsoft Active Server Pages technology." The plaintiff seeks unspecified compensatory damages, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief, trebling of damages for "willful infringement," and fees and costs. We believe the action has no merit and are vigorously defending against it.

On November 18, 2002, Plaintiffs Shell & Slate Software Corporation and Ben Weiss filed a civil action in the U.S. District Court in Los Angeles against Adobe alleging false designation of origin, trade secret misappropriation, breach of contract and other causes of action. The claim derives from the Plaintiffs' belief that the "healing brush" technique of Adobe Photoshop software incorporates the Plaintiffs' trade secrets. The Plaintiffs seek preliminary and permanent injunctive relief, compensatory, treble and punitive damages and fees and costs. We believe the action has no merit and are vigorously defending against it. On September 9, 2003, Adobe filed a counter-claim against Ben Weiss for breach of contract and misappropriation of trade secrets. Adobe seeks injunctive relief against any use of Adobe's trade secrets. Adobe seeks compensatory, statutory and punitive damages.

On June 2, 2004, Plaintiff Information Technology Innovation, LLC filed suit against Adobe in the U.S. District Court, District of Colorado, alleging infringement of U.S. Patent No. 5,892,908, entitled "Method of Extracting Network Information." The Plaintiff's complaint asserts that Adobe infringes the '908 patent by making, using and selling "Acrobat Standard and Professional products". The plaintiff seeks unspecified compensatory damages, injunctive relief, and fees and costs. Adobe has not yet been served with the complaint. We believe the action has no merit, and if served, will vigorously defend against it.

From time to time, in addition to those identified above, Adobe is subject to legal proceedings, claims, investigations and proceedings in the ordinary course of business, including claims of alleged infringement of third-party patents and other intellectual property rights, commercial, employment and other matters. In accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, Adobe makes a provision for a liability when it is both probable that a liability has been incurred and the amount of the loss can be reasonably estimated. These provisions are reviewed at least quarterly and adjusted to reflect the impacts of negotiations, settlements, rulings, advice of legal counsel, and other information and events pertaining to a particular case. Litigation is inherently unpredictable. However, we believe that we have valid defenses with respect to the legal matters pending against Adobe. It is possible, nevertheless, that our financial position, cash flows or results of operations could be affected in any particular period by the resolution of one or more of these contingencies.

ITEM 2. CHANGES IN SECURITIES AND USE OF PROCEEDS

(e) Below is a summary of stock repurchases for the quarter ended June 4, 2004 (in thousands, except average price per share). See Note 7 of our Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for information regarding our stock repurchase plans.

Plan/Period	Shares Repurchased(1)	Average Price Per Share	Maximum Number of Shares that May Yet Be Purchased Under the Plan
Stock Repurchase Program I
Beginning shares available to be issued as of March 5, 2004			21,941,844
